DipFD DipSW RNLD FPC

Qualified Funeral Celebrant and Bereavement Counsellor
A member of the Fellowship of Professional Celebrants

I am a qualified Funeral Celebrant who is specifically trained, certified and experienced in the funeral service. With empathy, I seek to meet the needs of your clients during their time of loss.

Working alongside you and your client, I will use my listening skills and my creativity to compose, and facilitate a funeral ceremony (non or semi religious) that is unique and personalised. I aim to reflect the personality and life of the client's loved one. It would be a privilege to work with you to support a client to plan a unique ceremony.

Who am I?

I am an experienced professional with a unique set of skills having worked in person centred services since 1980. As well as being a qualified and practised funeral celebrant (2014), I am also a trained Funeral Director (2011), Social Worker (2003), Nurse (1988) and Learning Development Professional (1992).

I have a depth of experience of funeral services. I am passionate about and totally committed to providing quality person centred bereavement and funeral celebrant services utilising the skills, knowledge and experience that I have gained over the years.

Additional Services

I can also offer the following services

- Post funeral bereavement support through one to one active listening
- Training/discussion groups/awareness sessions about the work of a Funeral Director and Celebrant
- Awareness training about loss and bereavement
